

New duty

Local authorities must take steps to promote the availability of the options for Self-directed Support

New duty

Local authorities must in so far as is reasonably practicable, promote a variety of providers of support and a variety of support