

Kinship Care Forum

SUPPORT FOR KINSHIP CARERS

Our Mission: To ensure that every child, young person and kinship carer has access to the help they need in this moment of crisis.

With the support of the Scottish Government, we will be sharing our resources and working together to provide emotional, financial and practical support to those who need it.

We Want To Help

Big Hearts
Edinburgh and Lothians

0131 603 4927

Big Hearts is able to help kinship carers in Edinburgh and the Lothians with reducing loneliness, parenting support & strategies, peer support and referrals to local services.

Children's Health
Scotland

0131 553 6553

www.childrenshealthscotland.org/

Children's Health Scotland supports kinship carers with any child health-related question and is working on an online Q and A and virtual workshops to help support their children's emotional well-being and reduce anxiety.

Kinship Care Advice
Service for Scotland
0808 800 0006

www.kinshipcarescotland.org.uk

Kinship Care Advice Service for Scotland is providing advice to kinship carers. Its main focus being on financial and legal information.

Nurture Scotland

07547 525 674 or
07505 855 341

Nurture Scotland is on hand to support with educational strategies and removing the stress about school work for carers who have children at home.

Scottish Kinship
Care Alliance
07490 720 123 or
07742 016 616

Scottish Kinship Care Alliance is offering practical and emotional support whilst also directing you to support groups within the local area.

Who Cares? Scotland

07545 337 152

Who Cares? Scotland is offering financial support for shopping, utilities and other essential items.

